

Overview on EuroWindoor's activities

1. EuroWindoor welcomes to the conference “Daylight by EuroWindoor” on the 21st September 2022 at the glasstec in Dusseldorf
2. EuroWindoor looks back to a successful conference “Daylight by EuroWindoor” at glasstec 2022
3. EuroWindoor advocates ambitious Minimum Energy Performance Standards (MEPS) in the EPBD
4. EuroWindoor demands to revise criteria for transparent products in EU Taxonomy Climate Delegated Act
5. EU Commission Construction Unit dives deeply into windows manufacturing
6. EuroWindoor and the EU Commission Construction Unit continue to meet about new CPR and the Technical Acquis process for windows and doors
7. EuroWindoor welcomes the Panhellenic Federation of Craftsmen in Aluminium and Metal Constructions (POVAS) as new member
8. EuroWindoor wishes joyful holidays and remembers the year 2022
9. Appointments 2023

EuroWindoor welcomes to the conference “Daylight by EuroWindoor” on the 21st September 2022 at the glasstec in Dusseldorf

Sponsored by:

Frankfurt, August 2022 - EuroWindoor is glad to invite to the conference “Daylight by EuroWindoor” at the glasstec fair in Dusseldorf. Well-known experts will lead the audience through the newest developments, scientific findings and legislative examples of daylight in buildings.

Please find additional information here

EuroWindoor looks back to a successful conference “Daylight by EuroWindoor” at glasstec 2022

Frankfurt, September 2022 – The conference “Daylight by EuroWindoor” attracted great interest among the visitors of the fair glasstec on 21st September 2022. More than 40 participants in the open conference area of Hall 11 and a large number of viewers in the live stream followed the interesting presentations of the well-known experts on the topic of the importance of daylight in buildings.

Please find additional information here

Please find the links to the live streams here

EuroWindoor advocates ambitious Minimum Energy Performance Standards (MEPS) in the EPBD

Frankfurt, October 2022 - EuroWindoor demands to preserve the ambitious nature of the revision of the Energy Performance of Buildings Directive (EPBD) as political parties try to deflate it by deleting important instruments as MEPS that help trigger the Renovation Wave to make the building stock more energy efficient.

Please find additional information here

EuroWindoor demands to revise criteria for transparent products in EU Taxonomy Climate Delegated Act

Frankfurt, November 2022 – EuroWindoor published together with European Aluminium and EPPA a joint position to bring attention to the short comings of the Taxonomy Climate Delegated Act. Amendments are needed to use the full potential of windows, doors and curtain walls.

Please find additional information here

EU Commission Construction Unit dives deeply into windows manufacturing

Brussels, November 2022 – EuroWindoor organised on request of the European Commission DG GROW H.1 for construction a visit to manufacturing plants of Engels Ramen en Deuren for timber and Avista Aluminium for aluminium windows and doors.

Please find additional information here

EuroWindoor and the EU Commission Construction Unit continue to meet about new CPR and the Technical Acquis process for windows and doors

Brussels, December 2022 – Two members of the European Commission DG GROW Unit H.1 for Construction joined the EuroWindoor Directing Council meeting on 23rd November to follow up the discussion about the challenges window and door manufacturer are faced by the proposed new Construction Production Regulation (CPR).

Please find additional information here

EuroWindoor welcomes the Panhellenic Federation of Craftsmen in Aluminium and Metal Constructions (POVAS) as new member

Π.Ο.Β.Α.Σ.
ΠΑΝΕΛΛΗΝΙΑ ΟΜΟΣΠΟΝΔΙΑ ΒΙΟΤΕΧΝΩΝ ΑΛΟΥΜΙΝΙΟΥ ΣΙΔΗΡΟΥ

Brussels, December 2022 – POVAS becomes a new member association of EuroWindoor at the beginning of 2023. The federation is a second level trade organization in Greece and represents 26 professional organisations in the field of aluminium and iron constructions as well as of aluminium and iron manufacturing. Overall POVAS stands for a sector in Greece with approximately 6.000 enterprises and about 25.000 workers.

Please find additional information here

EuroWindoor wishes joyful holidays and remembers the year 2022

Frankfurt, December 2022 – Soon 2022 will come to an end, so EuroWindoor would like to take the chance and review the year. It was a challenging year with many important topics like the proposal to recast the EPBD, revision of RoHS, the recast of the CPR and much more.

Please find additional information here

Appointments 2023

- 29/03/2023 EuroWindoor Directing Council and General Assembly, Frankfurt and online
- 19&20/06/2023 EuroWindoor Directing Council, Verona/Italy
- 14/11/2023 EuroWindoor Directing Council, Brussels/Belgium

Imprint

EuroWindoor AISBL
Schuman Business Center
40, Rue Breydel
1040 Bruxelles / Belgium
Phone: +32 (2) 502 3396
www.eurowindoor.eu

President

Verena Oberrauch

Secretary General

Frank Koos

Images: EuroWindoor, unsplash.com/, Glasstec, aluplast, Finstral, Velux, Saint-Gobain, POVAS, pixabay.com

