

Overview on EuroWindoor's activities

1. Joint proposal of the windows industry for a new Assessment and Verification System (AVS) under the CPR
2. EuroWindoor continues to have significant concerns about the draft Standardisation Request for windows and doors
3. EuroWindoor Submits Position on Tebuconazole Renewal to ECHA
4. European Window Stakeholders and EU Commission advance dialogue on CPR Implementation for Windows and Doors
5. EuroWindoor calls for Climate-differentiated Criteria of transparent products in EU Taxonomy
6. EuroWindoor Advocates for Efficient and Quality-Focused Standardisation Process
7. EuroWindoor Urges Balance Between Legal Requirements and Practical Implementation Under the CPR
8. EuroWindoor Calls for Comprehensive Revision of DPP Implementing Act
9. Proposed PFAS Restriction: Equivalent Alternatives Still Missing for Specific Exposed Applications
10. Madrid Directing Council meeting gives fresh momentum to window industry cooperation
11. Appointments 2026/2027

Joint proposal of the windows industry for a new Assessment and Verification System (AVS) under the CPR

Brussels, February 2026 – EuroWindoor, European Aluminium, EPPA, Glass for Europe and Small Business Standards (SBS) have jointly submitted a proposal for the introduction of a new Assessment and Verification System (AVS 4+) under the revised Construction Products Regulation (EU) 2024/3110.

Please find additional information here

EuroWindoor continues to have significant concerns about the draft Standardisation Request for windows and doors

Frankfurt, February 2026 – EuroWindoor has submitted comprehensive comments during the public consultation on the draft Standardisation Request for windows and doors (SReq) under the revised Construction Products Regulation.

Please find additional information here

EuroWindoor Submits Position on Tebuconazole Renewal to ECHA

Frankfurt, February 2026 – EuroWindoor has submitted its official contribution to the European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) public consultation on the renewal of Tebuconazole as a Product Type 8 (wood preservative) under the Biocidal Products Regulation (EU) No 528/2012.

Please find additional information here

European Window Stakeholders and EU Commission advance dialogue on CPR Implementation for Windows and Doors

Frankfurt, March 2026 – EuroWindow, Glass for Europe, EPPA, European Aluminium and Small Business Standards engaged in a constructive dialogue with DG GROW to advance the implementation of the revised Construction Products Regulation (CPR) for windows and doors.

Please find additional information here

EuroWindow calls for Climate-differentiated Criteria of transparent products in EU Taxonomy

Frankfurt, April 2026 – EuroWindow submitted feedback to the draft delegated Regulation on the EU Taxonomy Climate Delegated Act calling for revised assessment criteria for windows and curtain walls.

Please find additional information here

EuroWindoor Advocates for Efficient and Quality-Focused Standardisation Process

Frankfurt, April 2026 –EuroWindoor AISBL has submitted its response to the European Commission’s consultation on revising Regulation (EU) 1025/2012. This marks a continued engagement following EuroWindoor’s 2023 feedback on the same topic.

Please find additional information here

EuroWindoor Urges Balance Between Legal Requirements and Practical Implementation Under the CPR

Frankfurt, May 2026 – Following the CEN/TC 33 plenary meeting on 16 April 2026, at which the Commission positions on key issues relating to the draft Standardisation Request for windows, doors and related products under the Construction Products Regulation (EU) 2024/3110 were presented, EuroWindoor has submitted a detailed response.

Please find additional information here

EuroWindowor Calls for Comprehensive Revision of DPP Implementing Act

Frankfurt, May 2026 – EuroWindowor has submitted a detailed feedback statement highlighting fundamental shortcomings of the European Commission’s draft Implementing Regulation on the Digital Product Passport (DPP) Registry pursuant to Article 13(5) of the Ecodesign for Sustainable Products Regulation (ESPR).

Please find additional information here

Proposed PFAS Restriction: Equivalent Alternatives Still Missing for Specific Exposed Applications

Frankfurt, May 2026 – In its feedback to ECHA’s SEAC consultation on the proposed PFAS restriction under REACH, EuroWindowor points out that PFAS-containing materials are used in the window, door and façade sector only for a limited number of specific applications subject to particular stress — predominantly in surface coatings and functional components exposed to demanding environmental conditions.

Please find additional information here

Madrid Directing Council meeting gives fresh momentum to window industry cooperation

Madrid, July 2026 – EuroWindoor members met in Madrid, Spain, on 3 July for the summer Directing Council meeting at the Spanish standardisation body UNE, with a focus on European legislation, standardisation and the future workforce of the window and façade sector.

Please find additional information here

Appointments 2026/2027

- 16-18/09/2026 Performance-Based façade Design
- 20-23/10/2026 Fair “glasstec”, Dusseldorf / Germany
- 07-08/10/2026 Rosenheimer Window & Façade Conference
- 12/11/2026 EuroWindoor Directing Council, Brussels /Belgium
- 11-15/01/2027 Bau 2027
- 15/03/2027 EuroWindoor Directing Council & General Assembly / Online
- 17-18/06/2027 EuroWindoor Directing Council, Krakow / Poland
- 18/11/2027 EuroWindoor Directing Council, Brussels /Belgium

Imprint

EuroWindoor AISBL
Schuman Business Center
40, Rue Breydel
1040 Bruxelles / Belgium
Phone: +32 (2) 502 3396
www.eurowindoor.eu

President

Verena Oberrauch

Secretary General

Frank Koos

Images: EuroWindoor

